Thanks Sig. Let's all agree to produce all of the responsive materials, take all of the depositions, and then we can raise any and all arguments before Judge Altman on the Motion to Dismiss, no need to convince each other of arguments in emails. We are really not sure where you are going with your strategy, when and if we add the same federal securities claim (by February 23rd) that we have pending before Judge Altonaga and/or currently exists in the NY Voyager case, where we have already moved to be appointed Lead Counsel. I am sure you have a plan.

DOCUMENTS:

Today is a very, very big day for your client, so we ask you again very respectfully, please provide all of the responsive documents that you failed to produce on Jan 3rd, and comply with the 2 rulings by Judge Reid (and Judge Altman's Order denying your motion to stay). We even already provided you with just sampling of some of the internet texts and materials (that were easy to find) regarding the huge buzz around "Mark Cuban Miami Crypto", so just as a reminder, please make sure to produce all of the responsive merits "documents" to all of the outstanding requests (including Mark's texts), as well as specific documents from (those persons you identified as having "personal knowledge"), and provide us tonight with the required PRIVILEGED LOG. We have to resolve all document issues before we depose Mr. Erlich (who is under subpoena) in 12 days. Please remember to include documents, but not limited to, where the October Voyager/Mavericks Press Conference was marketed, targeted and intended to reach, all materials (the same that you are requiring from each plaintiff) for any Voyager Account for Mark Cuban and/or anyone in his family, Mr. Cuban's due diligence of Voyager including his texts/emails, including those prior to the Oct. new conference, any email/texts with Steve Ehrlich (or anyone from Voyager) before OR after the Oct. Voyager press conference, especially about the failed FTX purchase (that appears to have been a fraud), and most importantly, any and all research, investigation and/or questions from anyone regarding whether the Voyager interest accounts are "unregistered securities". Please make sure that you searched the materials from at least the following individuals (that you identified as having personal knowledge of these issues):

- Defendant Mark Cuban
- Ryan Mackey, Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships (Mavericks)
- Kyle Tapply, Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships (Mavericks)
- Nicole Leach, Associate General Counsel (Mavericks)

- Sekou Lewis, General Counsel (Mavericks)
- Any other document within the Mavericks or Cuban/s "custody, possession and/or control", such as any third party media sources, Voyager, text and email archives, etc.

DEPOSITIONS:

Judge Reid asked us both to "try our best" in the scheduling of the depositions. We would ask you to please reconsider providing Mr. Mackay and Mr. Tapply on dates either before or after the date for Mr. Cuban's deposition, or at least dates that are consecutive. There does not seem to be any valid reason to require us to travel to the same location 3 different times. We understand the Allstar week is the best time for the depositions (February 12-19), so there is no reason you cannot provide us 2 consecutive dates. We have already provided you with dates of all the existing and to be added plaintiffs representatives, but we will need to make one change, please keep this confidential but Sanford Gold has been diagnosed with advanced cancer, so we will be substituting him out as a class representative (and will file that Motion today) and based upon medical reasons, we will be producing Rachel Gold and Eric Rares for deposition at their house, on the same day, and we can start as early as you chose, so just let us know.

As always, just let us know if you ever want to set a Zoom to discuss any of these matters. Thanks,
Adam

Subject: Re: Robertson v. Mavericks/Cuban (Important email on outstanding discovery)

Adam: As always, it is good to hear from you. While various elements of your email sent at 9:40 pm on Jan. 9, 2023 are frankly bizarre and utterly untethered to the record here, let me try to briefly respond, while fully reserving the right of Defendants to send a more fulsome response.

First, given that you have filed an Amended Complaint riddled with false, if not fabricated allegations, along with four Declarations submitted in support of your premature class certification motion that contain facially perjurious statements, your statements about "ethical questions" and reserving the right to seek "sanctions" is rich with irony. Defendants fully reserve all rights to seek sanctions relief for what they believe has been a crossing of lines here in this case by Plaintiffs. By contrast, at all relevant times in this case, Defendants have fully complied with all professional obligations.

As for discovery, the only "Court ordered" depositions are the ones set forth the Magistrate Judge Reid's Jan. 9, 2023 "Order Following Hearing." We intend to fully comply with Magistrate Judge's Jan. 9 Order. We hope you will do so also. We will provide you with information this week as to where in Dallas we will make Mr. Cuban available to be deposed on Feb. 2. We will also advise you this week with information as to when and where we will be able to make Mr. Mackey and Mr. Tapply available to be deposed in Dallas, with such depositions, per the Magistrate's Order, to occur prior to February 23, 2023. We will not be able to make them available in early February, so you or your colleagues will have to make at least two trips to Dallas.

As for non-party depositions, you incorrectly state that Mr. Ehrlich's deposition was "Court ordered" to occur on January 25. In fact, Mr. Ehrlich's deposition is nowhere mentioned in the Jan. 9 Order, and as I recall, Magistrate Judge Reid did not issue any Order with respect to Mr. Ehrlich's deposition and the issue of his deposition, as you will recall, was something we suggested was not even before her. That said, If Mr. Ehrlich's counsel elects to make Mr. Ehrlich available to be deposed on Jan. 25 at his CT offices, we intend to appear and cross-examine Mr. Ehrlich.

You are silent with respect to your proposed non-party depositions of Mr. Gronkowski and the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. Have you served non-party subpoenas on them for January 19, 2023 and January 27, 2023, respectively, and if so, do you intend to try to proceed with such non-party depositions. Have either of them responded to your proposed non-party subpoenas? Or have you abandoned your effort to seek their non-party depositions? Who are their counsel? Please confirm by COB today the status of the Gronkowski and Sullivan & Cromwell non-party depositions, so that we can plan our schedule accordingly.

Further, your discussion of jurisdictional discovery and relevant case law is off the mark. We urge you to more carefully review the MTD that we served back in November 2022, which explains in great detail why there is clearly no IPJ over Defendants here. If the case you cite in your email is your best shot at making the meritless argument that you still maintain that IPJ somehow exists here, we look forward to receiving your responsive brief on Feb. 24 and replying to it. Putting that aside, the jurisdictional discovery that was produced on Jan. 3, 2023 was fully compliant with what Defendants were required to produce. You failed to engage with Defendants on any search terms or any search protocols, and the over 1,000 pages of documents Defendants produced simply confirm exactly what we have said all along: the Declarations submitted by Defendants on IPJ are 100% accurate. I do note, moreover, that your focus on IPJ seems to shift over time, as each new frivolous argument you make gets debunked. Your latest argument, now of alleged "targeting" of FL is both factually and legally incorrect, but we will await your responsive brief on Feb. 24 to see how you attempt to couch such misplaced argument. In any event, Defendants timely and properly responded to Plaintiffs' prior discovery requests, and we fully intend to comply with the Magistrate's Jan. 9 Order with respect to the remaining document discovery she directed occur by Defendants.

As for Plaintiffs' non-compliance, we look forward to receiving the balance of discovery due by close of business on January 13, 2023, as directed by the Magistrate. We have received the scheduling proposal of your colleague on the Court-ordered depositions of the three FL plaintiffs and of Mr. Rares, and we will be responding shortly on dates and times, and locations of such depositions.

As always, we look forward to discussing these and any further issues with you and your colleagues. And please let us know by COB today the status of the proposed Gronkowski and Sullivan & Cromwell depositions. Have a nice day.

Defendants otherwise reserve all rights.

Regards,

Sig

Subject: Robertson v. Mavericks/Cuban (Important email on outstanding discovery)

Dear Defense Counsel:

Please maintain this email, in that we have arrived at a very important point in our litigation. We are getting very close to an ethical question, in terms of your representations to the Court regarding the existence of responsive discovery and your compliance with oral and written discovery orders. We have been involved in a few discovery disputes before our court where we were required to seek sanctions and in some cases, they were issued by the court sua sponte.

Judge Altman entered a written Order many months ago that denied your Motion to Stay. Now, Judge Reid has entered two rulings, one written today, which codified what the Court verbally Ordered during our last two extensive discovery hearings. We respectfully ask that you please carefully review Judge Reid's Order, so that you do not continue to violate the court orders on discovery. We have 4 important upcoming depositions (with no limitations), so we must receive all of the responsive documents and information on the Court ordered deadlines (this week), so we can properly complete the scheduled depositions.

1. COURT ORDERED DEPOSITIONS:

We have four (4) depositions currently set in this matter in the next month: (1) Mr. Steve Erlich, Jan. 25th at his counsel's office in Connecticut, (2) Mr. Mark Cuban, on February 2 in Dallas, Texas (please let us know by tomorrow which office to set his deposition so we can serve a proper Re-Notice), and (3) (4) Messrs. Ryan Mackey (Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships for the Mavericks) and Kyle Tapply (Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships for the Mavericks). The Court required you to give us a date this week, to take their depositions, anytime at least one week before February 24th. If you are going to produce them both in Dallas, we asked you previously to please help us arrange their depositions either the days before, and/or after Mr. Cuban's deposition, that is currently set for February 2nd, so we all only have to make one trip to Dallas.

2. YOU HAVE NOT PRODUCED THE DISCOVERY ORDERED BY THE COURT:

As we have been telling you, and repeating for the past 4 weeks, the documents and information we requested all the way back in September, and which you just produced on January 3rd from Mr. Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks, regarding possible travel to Miami, is not what is required by jurisdictional discovery. At the end of this week, on January 13th, you have been ordered to produce all of the merits discovery that was served in September.

We have made this clear to Judge Reid and the Court has now made it clear twice, that your limited view of outstanding jurisdictional discovery is incorrect and insufficient. In fact, Judge Reid clearly ruled today that you are wrong, and made the same ruling at the December 20th hearing:

The COURT:

In this case Mr. Moskowitz's reasoning is ... he discussed these types of products in Florida and the business itself generally and his statements are generally directed towards Florida. Page 36

What you provided to us on January 3rd, was woefully deficient and did not satisfy any of your obligations to produce jurisdictional discovery:

(1) that shows, evidences and/or relates to Mr. Cuban, and the Dallas Mavericks “targeting” Florida Maverick fans, and Florida’s Voyager consumers, including but not limited to, through their extremely well-marketed public October Voyager/Mavericks International Press Conference, which was organized, marketed, formulated and carried out by Mr. Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks, where Mr. Cuban specifically said that he was trying to reach “all Maverick fans across the country”, that he was trying to “reach all of the Mavericks and Voyager customers” and Mr. Ehrlich said that he listened to Cuban’s many podcasts and interviews that he provided across the country.

(2) that shows any of the Defendants (Mr. Cuban and/or the Dallas Mavericks), had any and all “financial stake”, for these targeted efforts.

You made the following representation to the Court at the December 20th hearing as follows:

Mr. Cuban counsel: Mr. Moskowitz may not have liked the answer, but Mr. Cuban didn't have an agreement with Voyager and he didn't get compensation from Voyager. Page 42

We already confirmed that Mr. Cuban had his own personal Voyager account, in fact, he greatly touted at the Voyager/Mavericks Press Conference that he had his own Voyager account, that he had been trading on it for a few months and that he finds the Voyager Platform very easy to use and as close as “risk free” as possible. We have not been produced a single document from his Voyager account, and/or materials regarding any stock and/or compensation that Cuban or the Mavericks received from Voyager (like sponsoring the Mavericks Arena). We have also been requesting the actual Voyager/Mavericks Agreement that we all know exists (and all drafts, emails and/or texts regarding this Agreement), but you still refuse to provide any such documents. We have also specifically requested all documents, materials and information regarding Mr. Cuban and Voyager (such as any Voyager shares (and/or crypto tokens) that Mr. Cuban and/or the Mavericks was provided and/or purchased). Moreover, the Court was very clear at our last hearing that whatever information and materials you require from the Class Plaintiffs in this action to produce regarding their own Voyager accounts, Mr. Cuban must provide for his own Voyager account. Moreover, we need to know what “financial interest” (if any), Mr. Cuban and/or anyone with the Dallas Mavericks had with Voyager.

It is hard to imagine that your whole team simply did not understand what discovery is required to support a showing of “Specific Jurisdiction.” In the spirit of cooperation, you should review the case of Balestra v. ATBCOIN LLC, 380 F. Supp. 3d 340, 350–51 (S.D.N.Y. 2019). The case is extremely analogous to our facts. The District Court exercised Specific Personal Jurisdiction over the founders of a “blockchain” company, finding “target[ing] the U.S. market in an effort to promote the sale of ... very unregistered security at issue in litigation”. The Defendants contended that Plaintiff did not argue that Defendants had any direct contact with the forum related to the purported failure to register ATB Coin. The District Court disagreed and found that this was an “overly narrow view” of litigation (like your view), it ignores entirely contacts alleged in Complaint. Plaintiff provided ample evidence that both Defendants targeted the U.S. market in an effort to promote the sale of ATB Coins, the very unregistered security at issue in litigation.

This fact pattern is very similar to our case. In the spirit of even more cooperation, we have attached a brief summary of just a few of the texts and internet materials that we found with a quick search of the internet. As you can see, Mark Cuban specifically targeted Miami, and the residents of South Florida, as a hub for crypto currency. You can certainly argue to Judge Altman that he did not target Florida, but what you cannot do is state that you do not have any responsive materials, and instead keep them hidden. Now that the Court had ordered you twice to produce all such documents that are within Mr. Cuban, and the Mavericks “custody, possession and/or control”, you need to gather and produce all documents this week. Moreover, we need all documents showing any and all due diligence Mr. Cuban performed on Voyager and Voyager’s staking of tokens (which enabled Voyager to allegedly provide our victims with 9% interest), whether these interest accounts were and/or were not “unregistered securities” and Mr. Cuban’s dealings with the SEC on these specific issues.

More importantly, we are now set to take the depositions of Messrs. Ryan Mackey (Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships for the Mavericks) and Kyle Tapply (Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships for the Mavericks) and clearly, they will have responsive materials regarding the planning of the October Press Conference, the script that Mark Cuban was reading from at the event, how the set questions were drafted for the Maverick players to ask, who drafted all of the press releases, how was it decided which markets to target, how the Mavericks intended to market and target “Maverick fans across the country” and to “both customers of Voyager and Mavericks”, and how they utilized all of the various media outlets for these purposes. Judge Reid ordered that all merits discovery from Mr. Cuban and the Dallas Mavericks be produced this week and all documents from Messrs. Mackey and Tapply be produced by the end of January.

Finally, it now appears (based upon materials filed last week by Voyager and FTX) that FTX’ offer in the Bankruptcy Court to buy Voyager’s assets (which stayed and delayed our Voyager litigation for many months) may have been simply a fraudulent scheme to continue the FTX ponzi scheme to steal billions of additional dollars (ironically Voyager uses the term “chutzpah” to describe FTX, a word we used a few weeks ago to describe Voyager). We also know that Voyager loaned FTX many hundreds of millions of dollars. Please make sure to produce any and all documents regarding these issues, so that we can fully discuss them in the upcoming depositions.

Please let us know if you need any more explanations and please make sure to provide all of your responsive discovery by the Court deadlines.

Thanks, Adam

Subject: Re: Robertson v. Mavericks/Cuban (Confidential/Work Product)

Adam, I was taken aback by your email, and did want to offer some observations so that Defendants' views on your email are made clear. We also recognize that Mr. Schwartz will respond, if he determines it necessary, on behalf of his client, but feel it is important that he have a full context of the record, not just your selective and unfortunately inaccurate representations. Just so we are clear, when you say "We all met in Miami today," you did not meet and confer with any of the Defendants' counsel, and you do not speak on behalf of Defendants. You say that there will be "one deposition" of Mr. Ehrlich in this litigation, but at the same time you apparently have not told Mr. Schwartz that you are threatening to add multiple new Defendants to any further Amended Complaint, all of whom if added would surely want to re-depose any individuals such as Mr. Ehrlich, whom you have noticed for Jan. 25. It seemed to Defendants that your last proposed updated subpoena to Mr. Ehrlich included what was in effect a request for documents that really are the property of Voyager and that such amended recent subpoena for documents to Mr. Ehrlich was misdirected. Now, it appears that you concede as such in your further proposed amended subpoena to Mr. Ehrlich, and it would appear that you should instead be requesting such documents of Voyager, not Mr. Ehrlich. Further, you fail to advise Mr. Ehrlich's counsel that the production made yesterday by Defendants was of jurisdictional documents solely relating to any visits by Defendants to Florida during the 2021 and 2022 time period and it should come as no surprise to you that there were few documents relating to Mr. Ehrlich, since Mr. Cuban did not meet with Mr. Ehrlich at any time in Florida in either 2021 or 2022. We would respectfully suggest that it would be most practical, if you still intend to proceed with Mr. Ehrlich's deposition on Jan. 25, to limit it to the subject of Defendants' jurisdictional contacts with Florida, since as you are aware, that is to be the focus of Mr. Cuban's upcoming deposition as well on Feb. 2. We think that would help streamline Mr. Ehrlich's deposition on Jan. 25 and in fact avoid the need for redundant depositions of Mr. Ehrlich in the event as you promise you add new defendants in the case in late February 2023. Finally, we are puzzled by your suggestion that you are going to "resolve" discovery issues regarding Mr. Ehrlich at the conference on Friday, since (a) he is not a party to this action since you dismissed him with prejudice, and (b) he resides in the Northeast and his non-party deposition is to occur in Stamford, CT. Your statement as to why you agreed to dismiss Mr. Ehrlich from this action with prejudice, in any event, does not comport with our understanding of the deal you cut with the Debtors and the Creditors Committee as reflected in papers filed with the Bankruptcy Court. While we are prepared to address any issues that the Magistrate would like to consider on Friday, and believe the focus of Friday's conference should be on the discovery non-compliance of Plaintiffs, we don't believe that details of Mr. Ehrlich's proposed non-party deposition you have cited are in fact before the Magistrate, unless Mr. Ehrlich has consented to have the Magistrate adjudicate the terms of his non-party deposition, which we do not believe to be the case. Have a good evening.

Dan: We all met in Miami today and David had the great suggestion that we serve (you and Defendants) with the attached Amended Subpoena, so there is no confusion as to what specific documents and materials we are seeking from Mr. Ehrlich, before his one deposition in this litigation (that are within "his custody, possession and/or control"). One basis for our Agreement to dismiss him from this litigation was the representation that he was "key" and essential for Voyager's ongoing reorganization. We wanted to make sure that he located all documents that were not only sent directly to and from Defendant Mark Cuban, but also obviously Defendant Dallas Mavericks (to the extent those are different). We thought that was clear from the Original Subpoena, but this Amended Subpoena certainly clarifies any confusion. Moreover, we received last night the production from Mr. Cuban regarding his dealings with Mr. Ehrlich and there were just a handful of emails, so we presume this production will not include thousands of responsive materials (but Steve's search of all of the available databases (including his personal texts, emails, as well as any and all of Voyager's databases) will certainly reveal all of the responsive materials. Just let us know if you want to discuss any issues tomorrow and we always have our 10am Friday hearing with Magistrate Judge Reid to discuss and resolve any and all discovery. Let's plan to talk next week (let us know a good time and date), so we can get an update on when to expect the production (and any privilege logs). Thanks, Adam

Subject: RE: Robertson v. Mavericks/Cuban (Confidential/Work Product)

Dan: Thank you again for talking this afternoon about Mr. Ehrlich's upcoming deposition, as referenced on the attached Amended Subpoena. As we stated, we all have one main goal and that is to only depose Mr. Ehrlich once in this litigation, so it is important to make sure we obtain copies of all responsive materials, in advance of his deposition currently set for January 25th at your offices in Connecticut. As we mentioned, we already have a discovery hearing set with Magistrate Reid for this Friday at 10am, if we need to resolve any and all issues regarding Mr. Ehrlich's responsive materials and/or his deposition. Please call me if you have any questions. Thanks again, Adam
